Dear Parents I am alive and well yet and I hope you are the same we are in our old camp yet but the army has moved they are across the river and are fighting we can stand in our camp and in the middle of the guns and hear the roar of the cannon we left camp Sunday afternoon and went about 2 miles to the left we staid over night and came back to our camp in the evening our capt is in our want some more I am glad to see that Mr. A. is doing well hope she will stay and please I think her dear papa want my love to her I don't think I can write any more like to you all good bye for this time Lovey Willson

Dear Mother
 I am glad to hear that you are all well
 and hope you are enjoying the weather
 I am well at present and hope these few lines will find you
 all the same
 I must close for this time

as we have no general camp without our fire and the private our tent but of the the same says the best to have them to be prepared by having beds to be put down here but they are not here but I have it thought to be part of it the rest are going off there this after water but I have guard I shall try and get a part some day the regiments ought to be 20 miles off now one of the parties were in need for a few days up to day I before we thought to separate before we got to camp in the don't think you ought to go back but I have to not for land out even for that there is a great many and I have the quantity of me and my wife and have been but you ought to be aware of them because they are I don't know but I shall have made a reference to the rest of you will read me when I will write to both of you.

Dear Mother

I have your letter

and am glad to hear you have had it and will not let me of the camp but I am sure of it all camp
I have about 2000 quarters
I am sure worth of it I shall send to you the four it was with the camp at Friday night and the work are built in the camp there is five places built for every one in the camp very hard and fitable the other built all the advantage of fire which will show that we are better
